CONTENTS

7 Introduction
Yolanda Alaniz and Nellie Wong

15 Third World Conference of Lesbians and Gays:
The personal vs. political
Yolanda Alaniz

19 Campesina’s journey
Yolanda Alaniz

25 Exploring common differences
Nellie Wong

30 Lesbians of Color Conference:
The politics of “sisterhood”
Nancy Reiko Kato

35 Medgar Evers College:
Shall education serve the community?
Emily Woo Yamasaki

39 Women strikers shake up the Bay Area
Nancy Reiko Kato

44 Year of the Dragon: An actor’s dilemma
Emily Woo Yamasaki

48 Legislating language:
Behind the attack on bilingualism
Pat Hirose

52 She’s Gotta Have It: A comedy in error
Cora Harris

55 Harry Edwards’ band-aid solutions:
Sports and racism
Nancy Reiko Kato

59 Huerta, brutal cops, and the UFW
Moisés Montoya

© 1999 by Red Letter Press
4710 University Way NE, Suite 100
Seattle, WA 98105 • (206) 985-4621
RedLetterPress@juno.com • www.RedLetterPress.org
All rights reserved
Printed in the United States of America

Second Printing 2002

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data
Voices of color /
edited and with an introduction by Yolanda Alaniz & Nellie Wong.—1st ed.
p. cm.
Includes index.
ISBN 0-932323-05-7 (pbk.)
1. Minorities—United States—Social conditions.
4. Feminism—United States.
I. Alaniz, Yolanda, 1950- II. Wong, Nellie.
E184.A1V7 1998
305.8'00973—DC21 98-21193

Book design: Susan McDonald
Cover design: Helen Gilbert

Cover photo: University of California students demonstrate in defense of affirmative action on July 20, 1995 in San Francisco.

Articles reprinted by permission of the Freedom Socialist newspaper, which commissioned their writing.
“You were born” ©1995 by Nellie Wong,
reprinted by permission of the author.

Sources of border designs:
Ziva Amir, Arabesque: Decorative Needlework from the Holy Land.
W. & G. Audsley, Designs and Patterns from Historic Ornament.
Jorge Enciso, Design Motifs of Ancient Mexico.
Frances Paul, Spruce Root Basketry of the Alaska Tlinget.
Geoffrey Williams, African Designs from Traditional Sources.
Voices of Color

No “Gold Mountain” for Chinese immigrants
Emily Woo Yamasaki

Invisible women: Sexism in the Black Panther Party
Debra O’Gara

NAFTA: Tri-country genocide against indigenous people
Ann Rogers

Radicals of color tackle topics from Native rights to multiracial unity
Moisés Montoya

California Prop. 187 rings with echoes of Japanese American concentration camps
Diane Fujino

What road for healing the divisions between African Americans and Jews?
Phillis Whitmore and Adrienne Weller

Multiracial strikers persevere against Diamond Walnut
Imogen Fua

Looting by multinationals forces Canadian Natives onto warpath over land and resources
Ann Rogers

Rudy Acuña: Against the odds
Interview by Yolanda Alaniz

Asian Americans defy “model minority” myth
Nancy Reiko Kato

You were born
Poem by Nellie Wong

Contributors

Index